POLICY:

The Drug Treatment Court team uses the following guidelines to graduate or terminate offenders from the Drug Treatment Court Program.

PROCEDURES:

1. Criteria:
 - A. Graduation Criteria - Graduation is considered after completion of requirements articulated in the Drug Treatment Court Handbook (2201B) to the satisfaction of the Drug Treatment Court team.
 - B. Termination Criteria - The Drug Treatment Court team may recommend any offender for termination, final decisions are made by the Drug Treatment Court Judge. Termination is recommended when all avenues to advance positive offender change have been exhausted and no further intervention appears likely to positively impact the offender; or, the offender has demonstrated elevated risk to the community to the extent they can no longer be safely managed in the community without posing undue risk. Validated risk assessment results are considered when contemplating termination from the program. Factors that may be considered include but are not limited to:
 - 1) Refusal to cooperate with basic expectations of programming, supervision, Drug Treatment Court hearings, and/or treatment.
 - 2) Continued drug or alcohol use while in the program combined with limited or no growth between incidents and / or ongoing deceit surrounding use.
 - 3) No apparent investment in treatment and unresponsive to multiple efforts to enhance motivation.
 - 4) Unavailability due to incarceration or absconding.
 - 5) Acquiring a new felony charge.
