POLICY:

The Drug Treatment Court evaluation process is to enhance program standards through the gathering and implementation of offender feedback.

PROCEDURE:

1. The Drug Treatment Court Program completes an annual program review (2211A) through obtaining and analyzing offender feedback.
2. Drug Treatment Court staff collect and analyze data regarding offender's substance use, mental health, criminal activity, employment, housing, community involvement, criminogenic assessments, and basic demographics to make data-driven programmatic changes as necessary.
