

IN THE MATTER OF THE PAROLE OF Offender Name Offender #:	NOTICE OF PAROLE REVOCATION HEARING

TO THE ABOVE NAMED PAROLEE:

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that a Parole Revocation Hearing, pursuant to the authority of Chapter 908, Code of Iowa, and the Iowa Board of Parole Administrative Rules, will be held on the ___ day of _____, 20__ at ___ AM/PM at the _____, Iowa before an Administrative Parole Judge of the Iowa Board of Parole. The purpose of this Hearing is to determine the following:

1. Did a parole violation occur?
2. If a violation did occur, should the parole be revoked? You have been accused of violating your parole by committing the acts which are set out in the violation report attached to this form.

At the Hearing you will have an opportunity to answer these accusations and will have the following rights:

- (1) You have the right to speak in your own behalf to show you did not violate your parole or that there exist circumstances in mitigation which would indicate your parole should not be revoked; or you have the right to remain silent.
- (2) You have the right to bring letters and documents and to present witnesses in your behalf and in mitigation.
- (3) You have the right to request the presence of persons who have given evidence against you, in order that you may cross-examine these persons according to Parole Board Administrative Rules.
- (4) You may have the right to court appointed counsel depending on the court's review of your application for court appointed counsel if any were filed.

At the conclusion of the Revocation Hearing, the Administrative Parole Judge will issue an Order including Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and a Disposition of your case.

NOTE: Board of Parole policy requires seven (7) days advance notice prior to Parole Revocation Hearing.

Parole Revocation Hearings are scheduled for 30 minutes; if you require additional time you are required to contact the Parole Board Office to reschedule this Hearing.
