Under Executive Order 7, the Governor is restoring the voting rights to many Iowans immediately after discharge of their probation. Your voting rights will be restored immediately without any further action, with one exception. Those convicted of any of the felony homicide code sections (Section 707.1 through 707.11) are not covered by Executive Order 7. Individuals convicted of one of those crimes will need to apply to the Governor for restoration of voting rights. The application can be found at the Governor's website at governor.iowa.gov.
